Sample Job Profiles

FOREIGN LANGUAGE TEACHERS

Salary Range: $ 36,052- $106,673 per year

Duty Locations: Throughout the U.S. and abroad

Job Summary: The Defense Language Institute Foreign Language Center (DLIFLC) invites applications for faculty positions. DLIFLC offers foreign language instruction in various languages to approximately 3,000 students on a year-round schedule. Courses are intensive, and the classes are limited to 10 students who attend classes six to seven hours a day. Faculty members teach all aspects of resident and non-resident courses to military personnel and federal government civilian employees, using real-world proficiency activities. In addition to teaching listening, reading, writing and speaking skills, the curriculum includes instruction in geopolitical, economic and social attributes of foreign cultures, as well as job-related tasks.

Major Duties: A typical eight-hour day (40-hour work week) consists of four or more hours of classroom instruction in addition to preparing for instruction, adapting teaching material, administering and grading tests, checking homework, evaluating student performance, student counseling and other related activities. Faculty members are expected to stay abreast of current teaching, testing, and curriculum development theories and methods and participate in Institute sponsored professional development.
