PARTNERSHIP FOR PUBLIC SERVICE APPLAUDS SENATOR AKAKA'S FEDERAL SUPERVISOR TRAINING ACT

Washington, D.C. -- The Partnership for Public Service today released the following statement in support of Senator Akaka's Federal Supervisor Training Act of 2007 introduced today:

"Federal employees perform at their best when they are led by well-trained, highly competent supervisors and managers. Senator Akaka's Federal Supervisor Training Act will ensure that federal supervisors develop and maintain the skills necessary to engage employees in achieving better organizational performance. The Partnership for Public Service looks forward to working with Senator Akaka in support of this important legislation. We commend him for his leadership and ongoing commitment to government effectiveness and government employees."
